

INFORMATIONAL POSTCARD

E
G
Y
P
T
•
1
9
4
9
/
1
9
5
0

Date: 1949
Size: 107 x 160 mm
Producer: The Artistic Printing Company, Cairo
Process: lithography
Notes: front text: top: MOSQUITO BITES CAUSE MALARIA; bottom: DESTROY MOSQUITOES TO PREVENT SICKNESS AND DEATH; back text: top: 16th AGRICULTURAL AND INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, CAIRO, 1949; left: producer's name; center: PLEASE DO NOT USE THIS CARD FOR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE; bottom: MOSQUITOES BREED IN STAGNANT WATER; FEMALE MOSQUITOES BITE AT NIGHT AND TRANSMIT MALARIA; PROTECT YOURSELF - USE DDT
Price: E

M1

Checklist: ____

1

INFORMATIONAL POSTCARD

E
G
Y
P
T
•
1
9
4
9
/
1
9
5
0

1. Mosquitoes lay their eggs in swamps.
2. Do not dwell near a swamp.
3. Stop mosquitoes from breeding by draining swamps.
4. Place nets over windows and around your bed.
5. Do not go outdoors after sunset not before sunrise.
6. Use liquid insecticides to kill mosquitoes.
7. Healthy nutrition gives immunity against malaria.
8. Call health authorities in case of suspected malaria infection.
9. The Ministry of Health is at your service to

Date: 1950

Size: 113 x 167 mm

Producer: Survey Department Printing House

Process: lithography

Quantity: 50,000

Notes: front text: No. 1 Enemy of the People / The Mosquito; back text: printing data and The number 1 enemy of the people is the mosquito because it transmits deadly diseases and mosquito control strategies

Price: E