

JNF CARDS

The Jewish National Fund issued a series of postcards portraying scenes from Israel's early malaria eradication efforts. On the reverse in Hebrew and English is caption for each scene, publisher details, and message and address spaces. Issued in the 1950s, the cards portrayed malaria eradication sites and workers carrying out the planned activities. The cards were printed by Hadassim of Jerusalem. They measure 87 x 132 mm . The cards shown are those reported to date. Others likely exist.
